THE PIRST PENNSYLVANIA ARTILLERY REGIMENT. We had barely time in yesterday's paper to announce the arrival of this fine regi-ment—the first regiment of volunteer artillery ment—the first regiment of volunteer artillery ever organized. It is composed of eight com-panies, and numbers over eight hundred men. This regiment has forty-eight guns, (six for each company,) of which thirty-two have already arrived. They are 6, 12, and 24-pounders, a large proportion of which are rifled. Many of the officers and men have seen active service, and the progress in drill of the others has been very rapid.

The officers are : Lieut. Colonel, C. T. Campbell, commanding. Senior Major, A. Lewis. Junior Major, A. H. Danforth. Adjutant, Schellenberger.

Quartermaster, Bent.

ARRIVAL OF THE SIXTH WISCONSIN REGIMENT. This splendid regiment, 1,034 rank and file, arrived here at 4 o'clock yesterday morning from Baltimore, where they have been encamped for the past four or five days. The regiment comes fully provided in every respect, and has a fine regimental band of twenty-four pieces, besides a drum and fife corps of twenty pieces. Like the other Wisconsin regiments the men are uniformed in grey, with black trimmings, U. S. army regulation caps and overcoats. They are well officered, and will compare with any regiment now in the field mpanying the regiment are the wives of several of the officers.

This fine regiment, 1,041 strong, arrived here at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. They left Madison, Wisconsin, where they had been encamped four weeks, on Wednesday, the 24th ult., coming by way of Janesville, Chicago, Toledo, Cleveland and Pittsburg. Their trip was a triumphal march. All along the journey they were met at every station by crowds of people, who not only cheered them by their presence, but also furnished them bountifully freshments of all kinds. Not a single accident happened on the whole route. The men are enjoying excellent health, and the wives and danghters of several of the officers accompany the regiment on its journey. The Hon. H. T. Saunders also accompanied the regiment as State agent, to look after its interest and wel-

Company K of this regiment is composed almost wholly of men who were in the employ of an extensive mill owner of Dunn county, named William Wilson, who is immensely rich, worth several millions, in fact, and fitted out the company himself. The men have been in his employ from boyhood up, and he appears to them almost in a fraternal light. His daughter, Miss Eliza Wilson, a young lady of rare beauty and accomplishments, was exceedingly active in forming the company, and when they went to camp she accompanied them, and has been with them ever since. AT TENNALLYTOWN.

The forces at this point, consisting mostly of Pennsylvania regiments, were yesterday joined by Captain Sauer's cavalry company. The entire line of the canal is now well guarded, and canal boats from Cumberland are daily ex-

The first New York regiment (of Sickles' brigade) left their camp north of this city, yesterday morning, and after being reviewed, marched over the Eastern Branch, accompanion. nied by three ambulances, with the sick, and a long wagon train with camp equipage. This regiment numbers 1,100 men, and appears to be in good condition.

The third regiment of this brigade, Colonel Taylor, marched over at a late hour, yesterday

LOCATION OF THE REGIMENTS. The position of the troops north of this city has changed very considerably within the past few days. In and around Meridian Hill, where a few days ago there was not less than eight regiments, there is now not one. Most of these regiments are now stationed above Georgetown while some here have gone over into Virginia On the estate of Mr. Stone, opposite Columbia College, a guard of the New York ninth still remain in charge of the tents—the main por-tion of the regiment being with General Banks's command.

Back of this camp, and in the direction of the toll gate, the New York second, Colonel Tompkins, is encamped. All the other regi-ments, which were encamped in this vicinity last week, are now up above Georgetown. At the north end of Tenth street, at its in-tersection with the boundary, the New York seventy-ninth (Highlanders) is encamped, while the second regiment Sickles's brigade is en-camped on the same range of hills east side of Gales's woods, and further along, near Ben-ning's Bridge, is Baker's California regiment. The New York Tammany regiment, Colonel

Coggswell, the seventh Massachusetts, Colonel uch, and the tenth Massachusetts, Colonel Briggs, still retain their comfortable quarters at Kalorama.

The thirty-third New York regiment are now toll gate on the encamped near the second toll gate on the Seventh street road. As we passed there yesmelons from the surrounding country were re-tailing them to the men in great numbers. The camp is pleasantly situated on the right side of the road, and the men enjoy themselves hugely.

eleventh Pennsylvania, Col. Gellagher, are just beyond Glenwood Cemetery, and the New York twenty seventh, Colonel Steen still remain at Franklin square, K street, be tween Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets.

The second New Hampshire, Col. Marston, s still encamped near the Park.

PICK-POCKETS .- Several cases of pocket picking occurred yesterday morning in the cars be-tween Philadelphia and this city. A silver mounted revolver, which was found on the bat-tle-field at Bull Run, was taken from a soldier, who discovered his loss at the Camden station An old gentleman had a check for one thousand dollars on a Philadelphia bank taken from his pocket on the ferry boat at Havre de Grace.

As the cars were about leaving the station in Baltimore, some one in a car full of passengers cried out that he was not going to Washington, and called out to stop the cars. The cars, however were not stopped, and a rush was made by some of the passengers to get out. During the rush, Dr. S. G. House, of Marion, Wayne county, New York, felt a hand in his pocket, and instantly grabbed the man and cried out "stop thief," when another man (most likely an ac-complice) tore the thief away. The Dr. seized aged to escape in the darkness and confusion leaving a part of a coat in his hands. It would be well for travellers to look well to their pock ets, and keep their hands on their pocket-

MORE OF THE TALIAFERRO CASEin Dispute.—It will be recollected that, a few weeks since, Mr. G. T. Taliaferro, late of the Treasury Department, was arrested at Port Tobacco by an expedition sent down for the purpose of making the arrest. He was brought to the city with his baggage, which was found to contain a number of letters from various to contain a number of letters from various parties in the city to friends in the South, one of which contained the following pious remark: "My daily prayer to God is, that the Confed-erates may prevail. I am tired of living under this Government, and my prayer is that God's blessing will rest upon the cause." Justice Donn, on his arrival, examined the case, and the evidence was transmitted to General Manswho allowed Taliaferro to remain in jail until a fews days since, when he was released on taking the oath of allegiance, at the request of many persons, and in view of his feeble

At the time of his arrest, a Colt's revolver was found on him, which was retained by Gen-eral Mansfield, who afterwards handed it to Justice Donn, to be returned to the proper owner, when found. It has since been ascer-tained that Taliaferro traded a United States musket, with Mr. Clement L. West, for the pistol, and subsequently promised that if the musket was claimed, and he would have to give it up, that he would make it good, assessing the value of it at $13.75.

The musket was afterwards found out to be long to the Government, being one those which was issued to the employees of the Tressury Department, with which to resist an invasion The one in question fell into the hands of T.'s cousin, Taliaterro Hunter, a clerk in the Department, and was by him presented to Talia Ferro previous to his (Hunter's) leaving for the Southern Confederacy. Mr. West had, of course, to give up the musket to the Government, and then looked to Mr. Taliaferro to make up the loss.

Mr. Taliaferro agreed to pay the price of the musket, and Mr. West left an order with Jusmusket, and Mr. West lett an order with out-tice Donn for the pistol to be delivered to Talia-ferro, but owing to Taliaferro changing his mind on the subject, he sent a protest to the justice's office against the delivery of the pistol until the amount, $13.75, was paid.

Mr. Taliaferro applied to the justice yesterday. for the pistol, and was refused; but, in the course of the evening, it was replevined from the hands of the justice by Deputy Marshal Philips, who delivered it to Mr. Taliaferro. This is, probably, not the last of the case, and we may probably hear of an interesting suit in our ourts.

FLAG PRESENTATION—On Wednesday, a beautiful flag was presented to the District Union Rifles, (Capt. Morrison,) by the ladies of Wash gton county. The presentation speech was ade by Mr. John W. Clampitt, late a member ington of company C, Washington Light Infantry. The reception speech was made by Captain Morri-son. A beautiful collation was furnished by the officers of the company, and everything passed off in an enthusiastic manner. It will e recollected that this company was mustered into service for three months, which time has nearly expired; but they are now making arrangements to form a company for the three year's service. During their three month's ser-vice they rendered efficient service by keeping things straight in the country, and guarding the different northern approaches to the city.

CROSS FIRING .- On Wednesday afternoon Justice Donn had quite a hard time to settle the disputes of Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Glesson both of that famous locality—"Swamp Poodle." They each charged the other with fighting, and in proof, showed the marks upon their per knotty was the case that each one came prepared with counsel to seize on every quib-ble of the law, and between the arguments of the lawyers and the "jabbering" of the parties, there was quite a lively time. The justice required Mrs. Barnes to give security to keep the peace, and Mrs. Gleason to appear at court.

AFFRAY .- A muss occurred yesterday afternoon, in a house near the corner of New York Avenue and Seventh street, between a citizen and a soldier, in which the latter was shot through the hand, but whether by the citizen or himself, has not yet been found out. Both parties were arrested and taken to the guardhouse, where an investigation will be had thi IMPROVING .- Dr. A. Lohmeyer, of the first Ohio regiment, who was so cruelly treated over in Virginia some two weeks since—an account of which we published at the timehas now so far recovered as to be able to wall about. His injuries are of such a nature as to unfit him for military service, and yesterday morning he was honorably discharged.

A PICKET SHOT .- One of the Federal pickets at Great Falls received a painful, though it is to be hoped not dangerous, wound, night before last, by being shot by a secessionist skulking around, on the opposite side of the river. A brother of Jackson, the murderer of Ellsworth, was arrested at this point a short time since, and let off, after a very slight ex

Nor KILLED.—The wife of Captain With-ington, of the first Michigan regiment, who was reported to have been killed at Bull Run, received a letter from him yesterday. He writes from Richmond, and reports himself in good health.

Capt. Ricketts is also wounded. Dr. Lewis, of the second Wisconsin regiment, is in attendance. Mrs. Ricketts is with her husband. Capt. W. writes that they are treated with great kindness. They are all on their parole of honor not to escape or take up arms against the South

PRINCE NAPOLEON.—The Prince and suite left here early yesterday morning for the other side of the river, where he intends visiting Bull Run, the scene of the late battle. EFFECTS OF THE HEAT.-Yesterday, in many places, the thermometer was at 96 degrees in the shade. Several of the soldiers were prostrated by the heat during the day. A baker in Havenner's establishment had an attack of coup de soliel in the morning. He was carried to the Infirmary.

This extremely hot weather causes the virtues of soda water to be tested. A splendid article is that sold by Sylvester, corner of H and Sixth streets.

At Manassas.—Lieut. Dempsey, of the New York second regiment, who is reported to have been killed at Bull Run, is now, we are credibly informed, in the hospital near Manassas Junction. His injuries, though se-vere, are not considered dangerous.

The President and Mr. Blair yesterday visited the Navy Yard, to witness a trial of May-nard's improved rifle, with Alexander's cartridge

The friends of Mr. Sickles assert that he is soon to be appointed to a brigadier generalship.

Battle at Athens, Mo.

Quincy, Ill., Aug. 8 .- A band of rebels, numbering one thousand to twelve hundred, made an attack upon a camp of Union men at Athens, Mo., on Monday morning last, at 5 o'clock. There was a considerable amount of arms and ammunition for the U. S. troops stored there, under guard. The troops composing this camp were United States volunteers, numbering about three hundred and fifty, under command of Capt. Moore. The fighting lasted about one hour, when the rebels retreated. Meantime, Capt. Moore having been reinforced by about one hundred and fifty men from Centrelia, Iowa, on the opposite side of the river, gave chase after the rebels for about a mile and a half, killing one, taking eighteen prisoners, and capturing thirty-one horses and two secession flags. Several rebels were wounded. After the battle, six or eight rebels were found dead on the field. In the afternoon, a bearer of a rebel flag of truce admitted they carried off fourteen killed, and as many more wounded and missing. The rebels were led by Martin Green, brother of Ex-Senator Jim Green. The Union men had three killed and eight wounded. Athens is a small town in the extreme northeast part of Missouri, on Desmoines river, twenty-five or thirty miles west of Keokuk. It is reported that the Union forces, having been further reinforced by five or six hundred troops from Iowa, marched on Monday night in pursuit of the rebels, who were encamped eight miles from Athens. A fight has no doubt taken place at that point, unless the rebels ran.

Philadelphia, August 8 .- At the meeting of the Democratic State Committee in Albany, a proposition was received from the Republican Committee for union conventions of the two parties. The proposal was rejected. While cholding that the war should be vigorously proscuted, the committee regard it due to the Federal Government to hold out terms of peace and accommodation to dissevered States, assuring hem of all their rights under the Constitution. A convention will be held in Syracuse on the ACCIDENT AT THE SUSQUEHANNA RIVER. Havre de Grace, Aug. 8.—An accident ocfrom Philadelphia for Baltimore. On the ar-rival of a portion of the freight train, contain ing army wagons, horses, &c., on this side, the engine, as usual, had drawn the cars off the boat, and took them to the top of the grade.

The boat then started back to the other side for another load. After the engine had been detached from the cars at the top of the grade, they started backward, and the brakesman not being able to hold the cars, they ran back some distance, and were not checked until one car had gone into the dock. The car con-tained army wagons, all of which were gotten out, and after some delay the dock was Six horses in another car were smothered in consequence of the accident.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE. Fortress Monroe, August 7.—Col. Benedix's resignation has been accepted. He leaves for New York to night, and will soon return with a new regiment.

A large accession to Captain Killpatrick's mounted riflemen is expected to morrow.

The men picked up yesterday by the Quaker City represent that provisons are very cheap in North Carolina. The harvest has been abundant. Flour, it was thought, would not bring more than $5 per barrel. Coffee was dear, an worth 37½ cents per pound. A prize cargo of cheap sugar, taken into brought 9 cents per pound.

THE KENTUCKY ELECTION Louisville, Aug. 7.—Nearly the full vote from forty counties has been received, which return but three secessionists to the legislature. But the disloyal counties have not yet been generally heard from. Well informed politicians estimate the Legislature in each House to be composed of seventy five per cent.

of Union men.

ARREST OF A CONFEDERATE OFFICER Cincinnati, Aug. 7.—Charles H. Tyler, for-merly captain in the U. S. army, now lieutenant colonel of the Confederate army, and nephew of ex-President Tyler, came here for his wife, and was arrested. He is now held for orders from Washington.

THE OHIO DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION Cleveland, Aug. ..- The Democratic State
Convention met at Columbus to day, and nominated H. J. Jewett for Governor, and John Scott Harrison for Lieutenant Governor. A series of resolutions were adopted. The third recommends the Legislatures of the States to call a National Convention for settling the present difficulties, and restoring and preserv-ing the Union. The sixth resolution condemns the President's late attempt to suspend the writ of habeas corpus.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE MARYLAND LEGISLATURE Frederick, Aug. 7.—Both Houses of the legislature adjourned to day at noon, to meet in this city on Tuesday, September 17.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION IN MAINE Augusta, Me., Aug. 7.—The Republican State Convention, which was held here to-day, was large and enthusiastic. Gov. Washburne was unanimously renominated. Resolutions were passed declaring that the war, which had been forced on the North, is now to be waged without any desire for subjugation or conquest, but to maintain the supremacy of the laws and preserve the dignity and equality of the several States, and that when this object is accomplished the war should cease.

Independence, Mo., Aug. 7.—The Sants Fe mail of the 22d has arrived. Great excitement prevails in New Mexico on account of the threats of the l'exans to capture the Go ernment property in the Testitory. A body of Texans had assembled at Fort Bliss, about 700 strong, with a number of pieces of artillery. Their pickets were within ten miles of Fort ore, where there are thirteen companies of regulars.
